and the Association shall, upon the request of a member, make available the record for the inspection of the members and the member may make a copy of or take an extract from the record but shall have no right to remove the record for that purpose.

16. Chairman

16.1 Subject to this rule, the President shall preside at all general meetings and Committee meetings.

16.2 If the President is absent from a meeting then a member elected by the other members present at that meeting shall preside at that meeting.

17. Committee Meetings

[Schedule 1 (6) (e) of the Act]

- 17.1 The Committee shall meet quarterly or more or less often as business requirements dictate. A minimum of three meetings shall be held per Association's Financial Year.
- 17.2 A Committee meeting may be called by the President or the Secretary at any time upon reasonable notice to the members of the Committee.
- 17.3 The number required to form a quorum at a Committee meeting shall be three.
- 17.4 If, at the expiry of 30 minutes after the time for which a Committee meeting has been called, a quorum is not present, the Chairman shall adjourn the meeting to such time and place as he shall think fit.
- 17.5 At a Committee meeting each member of the Committee present in person or by teleconference shall have a single deliberative vote.
- 17.6 A question arising at a Committee meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes, but, if there is an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote.
- 17.7 Subject to these rules, the procedure and order of business to be followed at a Committee meeting shall be determined by the members of the Committee present at that meeting.
- 17.8 A member of the Committee having any direct or indirect pecuniary interest referred to in sections 21 or 22 of the Act shall comply with that section (rules 18 and 19).

18. Disclosure of interest

[Section 21 of the Act]

- 18.1 A member of the Committee who has any direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a contract, or proposed contract, made by, or in the contemplation of, the Committee shall, as soon as he becomes aware of his interest, disclose the nature and extent of his interest to the Committee.
- 18.2 Sub-rule 18.1 does not apply in respect of a pecuniary interest that exists only virtue of the fact:-
 - (a) That the member of the Committee is an employee of the Association; or
 - (b) That the member of the Committee is a member of a class of persons for whose benefit the Association is established.
- 18.3 Where a member of the Committee discloses a pecuniary interest in a contract or proposed contract in accordance with this rule, or his interest is not such as need be disclosed under this rule:-
 - (a) The contract is not liable to be avoided by the Association on any ground arising from the fiduciary relationship between the member and the Association; and
 - (b) The member is not liable to account for profits derived from the contract.
- 18.4 The Association shall cause every disclosure made under this rule by a member of the Committee to be recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the Committee at which it is made.

19. Voting on a contract in which a member of the Committee has an interest

[Section 22 of the Act]

- 19.1 A member of the Committee who has any direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a contract, or proposed contract, made by, or in the contemplation of, the Committee, shall not take part in any deliberations or decision of the Committee with respect to that contract.

19.2 Sub-rule 19.1 does not apply in respect of a pecuniary interest that exists only by virtue of the fact that the member of the Committee is a member of a class of persons for whose benefit the Association is established.

20. Financial Year

20.1 The Association's Financial Year means a period not exceeding 15 months fixed by the Committee, being a period commencing on the date of incorporation of the Association and ending on 30 September and thereafter each period commencing 1 October and ending on 30 September in the following year.

21. Banking Accounts

[Schedule 1 (9) of the Act]

21.1 All accounts passed for payment by the Committee shall be paid by cheque, signed by any two Officers or other members of the Committee authorised by the Committee for that purpose.

22. Accounting records

[Sections 25 and 26 and Schedule 1 (9) of the Act]

22.1 The Association shall:-

- (a) Keep such accounting records as correctly record and explain the financial transactions and financial position of the Association;
- (b) Keep its accounting records in such manner as will enable true and fair accounts of the Association to be prepared from time to time; and
- (c) Keep its accounting records in such manner as will enable true and fair accounts of the Association to be conveniently and properly audited. [Section 25 of the Act]

22.2 The Association shall submit to its members at the Annual General Meeting accounts of the Association showing the financial position of the Association at the end of the immediately preceding Financial Year. [Section 26 of the Act]

23. Powers and Duties of the Auditor

23.1 The Auditor shall be a registered company auditor within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001.

23.2 The Auditor shall be appointed at the Annual General Meeting.

23.3 The Auditor shall audit the annual accounts of the Association in accordance with generally accepted auditing principles.

23.4 If the Auditor resigns or is otherwise unable to act then the Officers shall appoint a substitute.

24. Postal Ballots and Special General Meetings

24.1 The Committee:-

- (a) May at any time convene a special general meeting or conduct a postal ballot of voting members; and
- (b) Shall, within 60 days of receiving a request in writing to do so from not less than 25 voting members, convene a special general meeting or conduct a postal ballot of voting members in the manner and for the purpose specified in that request. The notice of a special general meeting shall state where and when the meeting is to be held and the particulars of the business to be transacted. [Schedule 1 (8) and (10) of the Act]

- 24.2 The members making a request referred to in sub-rule 24.1 (b) shall:-
- (a) Present that request in the form of a notice of motion stating the purpose and action desired; and
 - (b) Sign that request.
- 24.3 If a special general meeting is not convened or a postal ballot is not conducted within the relevant period of 60 days referred to in sub-rule 24.1 (b), the members who made the request concerned may themselves convene a special general meeting or conduct a postal ballot as if they were the Committee.
- 24.4 When a special general meeting or a postal ballot is conducted under sub-rule 24.3 the Committee shall ensure that the members convening the meeting or conducting the postal ballot are supplied free of charge with particulars of all voting members and the Association shall pay the reasonable expenses of conducting that meeting or ballot.
- 24.5 Notice convening a special general meeting shall be sent to voting members not less than 21 days prior to the meeting.
- 24.6 Members shall have not less than 14 days to respond to a postal ballot.

25. Annual General Meeting

- 25.1 The Association shall hold an Annual General meeting in every calendar year at the venue of and during the National Championship and otherwise within 4 months after the end of the Financial Year or such longer period as may in a particular case be allowed by the Commissioner pursuant to the Act. [Section 23 and Schedule 1 (10) of the Act]
- 25.2 The Secretary shall send notice of the Annual General Meeting to all voting members before 1 December preceding the meeting.
- 25.3 The notice of the Annual General Meeting shall include:
- (a) When and where the meeting is to be held;
 - (b) The particulars and order in which business is to be transacted;
 - (c) Advising of nominations for the positions of Officers;
 - (d) Notices of motion to be put to the meeting which have been delivered to the Committee prior to 1 November immediately preceding that meeting.
- 25.4 At the Annual General Meeting the following business shall be conducted:-
- (a) The confirmation of the minutes of the preceding Annual General Meeting;
 - (b) The election of the Officers for the ensuing year;
 - (c) The presentation of the President's report on the preceding year's activities;
 - (d) The presentation of the Treasurer's report and balance sheet in respect of the preceding Association's Financial Year;
 - (e) The presentation of the National Measurer's report for the preceding year;
 - (f) The appointment of the Auditor of the Association for the ensuing year;
 - (g) The election of Life Members, if any;

- (h) Any other business of which written notice shall have been given to the Committee prior to 1 November immediately preceding that meeting.
- (i) Any other business of which notice has not been given. No resolution may be carried in respect to any business of which prior written notice has not been given in accordance with sub-rule 25.3(d).

26. Service of Notices or Postal Ballots

[Schedule 1 (8) and (10) of the Act]

26.1 Delivery of a notice or postal ballot may be effected by:-

- (a) Serving it on a member personally; or
- (b) Sending it by post to a member at the address of the member appearing in the Register of Members.

26.2 When a notice or ballot is sent by post under sub-rule 26.1, sending of the notice shall be deemed to be properly effected if the notice is sufficiently addressed and posted to the member concerned by ordinary prepaid mail.

27. Proceedings at General Meetings

27.1 A voting member may appoint another member in writing to attend and vote on his behalf at a general meeting.

27.2 At a general meeting 15 voting members present in person or by proxy constitute a quorum.

27.3 If within 15 minutes after the time specified for holding of the general meeting a quorum is not present the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same time and place on the next day or to such other time and place as the Chairman may determine.

27.4 If within 15 minutes of the time appointed by sub-rule 27.3 for the resumption of an adjourned general meeting a quorum is not present, the voting members who are present may nevertheless proceed with the business of that meeting as if a quorum were present.

27.5 There shall not be transacted at an adjourned meeting any business other than business left unfinished or on the agenda at the time when the meeting was adjourned.

27.6 At an Annual General Meeting no resolution may be carried in respect of any business unless written notice has been given to the Committee prior to 1 November immediately preceding that meeting.

27.7 Motions of which written notice has been received shall not be amended.

27.8 All meetings shall be conducted in accordance with the generally accepted rules of debate.

27.9 Subject to these rules, each voting member present in person or by proxy is entitled to a deliberative vote.

27.10 At a general meeting:-

- (a) An ordinary resolution put to the vote shall be decided by a majority of votes cast on a show of hands, subject to sub-rule 27.12; and
- (b) A special resolution put to the vote shall be decided in accordance with section 24 of the Act as defined in rule 28, and if a poll is demanded, in accordance with sub-rule 27.12.

27.11 A declaration by the Chairman that a motion has been passed as an ordinary resolution shall be evidence of that fact unless a poll is demanded in accordance with sub-rule 27.12.

27.12 A poll may be demanded by the Chairman or by three or more voting members present in person or by proxy and, if so demanded, shall be taken immediately on that demand being made and in such manner as the Chairman directs.

27.13 If a poll is demanded and taken under sub-rule 27.12 in respect of an ordinary resolution, a declaration by the Chairman of the result of the poll is evidence of the matter so declared.

27.14 Every resolution passed at the meeting shall be conclusive and binding on all members of the Association whether or not they were present at the meeting.

28. Special resolution

[Section 24 of the Act]

28.1 A resolution is a special resolution if it is passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the voting members who vote in person or, by proxy or postal vote, at a meeting of which notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution was given in accordance with the Constitution.

28.2 At a meeting at which a resolution proposed as a special resolution is submitted, a declaration by the Chairman that the resolution has been passed as a special resolution shall be evidence of the fact unless, during the meeting at which the resolution is submitted, a poll is demanded in accordance with sub-rule 27.12.

29. Minutes of Meetings

29.1 The Secretary shall cause proper minutes of all proceedings to be taken and then to be entered within 30 days after the holding of each general meeting or Committee meeting, as the case requires, in a minute book kept for that purpose and copies distributed to the members of the Committee and the State Associations. If the minutes are subsequently amended copies of the amended minutes shall be distributed.

29.2 The Chairman shall ensure that the minutes taken of a general meeting or Committee meeting under sub-rule 29.1 are checked and signed as correct by the Chairman of the general meeting or Committee meeting to which those minutes relate or by the Chairman of the next succeeding general meeting or Committee meeting, as the case requires.

29.3 When the minutes have been entered and signed as correct under this rule, they shall, until contrary is proved, be evidence that: -

- (a) The general meeting or Committee meeting to which they relate was duly convened and held;
- (b) All proceedings recorded as having taken place at that meeting did in fact take place thereat; and
- (c) All appointments or election purporting to have been made at that meeting have been validly made.

30. Registration and Eligibility to Compete in Association Events

30.1 No Flying Fifteen shall race in Association races unless:

- (a) It holds a current Measurement Certificate and is entered on the Register of Boats or is registered with an association established outside Australia affiliated with ff International; and
- (b) Both the helmsman and crew are financial members of a State Association or of ff International or an association affiliated with ff International.

30.2 The Committee may recommend to any authority providing racing for the Class the suspension from racing of a Flying Fifteen which, in their opinion, does not comply with sub-rule 30.1.

31. National Championships

31.1 The Association shall be responsible for the conduct of the Australian National Championship and the Committee may appoint appropriate organisations to conduct it on its behalf.

31.2 The National Championship shall be contested annually, usually in January.

31.3 The National Championship shall be conducted in accordance with the National Championship By-laws.

31.4 The trophy for the National Championship shall be the Coweslip Trophy. The conditions of the Coweslip Trophy are set out in the Schedule to this Constitution.

31.5 The trophy for the practice race for the National Championship shall be the Uffa Fox Trophy. The Uffa Fox Trophy shall not be taken out of Australia. In the event that the Uffa Fox Trophy is won by an overseas contestant it shall be held in Australia as directed by the President.

32. Common Seal

[Schedule 1 (12) of the Act]

32.1 The Association shall have a common seal on which its corporate name shall appear in legible characters.

32.2 The common seal of the Association shall not be used without the express authority of the Committee and every use of that common seal shall be recorded in the minute book referred to in rule 29.

32.3 The affixing of the common seal of the Association shall be witnessed by any two Officers.

32.4 The common seal of the Association shall be kept in the custody of the Secretary or of such other person as the Committee from time to time decides.

33. Limitation of Liability and Indemnity of Members of the Committee

33.1 An Officer, trustee or member is not by reason only of his being such an Officer, trustee or member liable in respect of the liabilities of the Association. [Section 12 (1) of the Act]

33.2 The Committee shall not incur any liability in respect of any failure to perform or do any act or thing which, by reason of any provision of any present or future law of the Commonwealth of Australia or any State or Territory thereof or any rule regulation or by-law pursuant thereto or of any decree order or judgment of any competent Court, the Committee shall be hindered prevented or forbidden from doing or performing.

33.3 The Committee shall not be liable to account to any person for any payment made by them in good faith to any duly empowered fiscal authority of the Commonwealth of Australia or any State or Territory thereof for taxes or other charges upon the Association upon any certificate or with respect to any transaction under this Constitution notwithstanding that any such payment ought or need not have been made.

- 33.4 The members of the Committee shall be indemnified by the Association from and against any costs and disbursements that may be incurred in prosecuting or defending any action or suit arising under or in respect of the provisions of this Constitution unless such costs and disbursements are incurred by reason of the dishonesty of those members of the Committee or any neglect or default on their part.
- 33.5 The members of the Committee shall not be responsible for any loss or damage occasioned by the exercise of any discretion or power hereby or by law conferred on them or by failure to exercise any such discretion or power or by any error or forgetfulness whether of law or of fact or any breach of trust whatsoever on the part of them or their legal or other advisors or generally unless it is proved to have been committed made or omitted in personal conscious fraudulent bad faith by the members of the Committee charged to be so liable.

34. Constitution and Rules of the Association

- 34.1 This Constitution shall bind every member and the Association to the same extent as if every member and the Association had signed and sealed this Constitution and agreed to be bound by all the provisions of the Constitution included herein.
- 34.2 The Secretary shall keep and maintain in an up to date condition the Constitution and, upon the request of a member, shall make available the Constitution for the inspection of the member and the member may make a copy of or take an extract from the Constitution but shall have no right to remove the Constitution for that purpose. [Section 28 of the Act]
- 34.3 Subject to sections 17, 18 and 19 of the Act the Association may alter the Constitution by special resolution but not otherwise. [Section 17 (1) and Schedule 1 (11) of the Act].
- 34.4 Within one month of the passing of a special resolution altering the Constitution or such further time as the Commissioner may in a particular case allow, the Association shall lodge with the Commissioner notice of the special resolution setting out particulars of the alteration together with a certificate given by a member of the Committee certifying that the resolution was duly passed as a special resolution and that the Constitution as so altered conforms to the requirements of the Act. [Section 17 (2) of the Act]
- 34.5 An alteration of the Constitution shall not take effect until sub-rule 33.4 is complied with. [Section 17 (3) of the Act]
- 34.6 An alteration of the Constitution having effect to change the name of the Association does not take effect until sections 17 and 18 of the Act are complied with and the approval of the Commissioner is given to the change of name. [Section 18 of the Act]
- 34.7 An alteration of the Constitution having effect to alter the objects or purposes of the Association does not take effect until sections 17 and 19 of the Act are complied with and the approval of the Commissioner is given to the alteration of the objects or purposes. [Section 19 of the Act]

35. Dissolution

- 35.1 The Association may be wound up voluntarily if the Association is solvent and resolves by special resolution that it be wound up voluntarily. [Section 30 of the Act]
- 35.2 If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Association there remains after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members but shall be given or transferred to another association incorporated under the Act or for charitable purposes in accordance with section 33 of the Act.
- 35.3 In the event of the winding up or dissolution of the Association, the Commissioner of Taxation shall be advised of the date of dissolution within 30 days of dissolution.

36. Interpretation

- 36.1 In construing this Constitution words importing the feminine gender, masculine gender, singular or plural numbers shall include masculine gender, feminine gender, plural numbers and singular numbers respectively.
